Internship Application

Overview

We support our future public servants. While we are always accepting internship applications at Stevens County Human Services, we do not always have an opening or are able to accommodate requests. Before an intern is allowed to start they must complete an interview and pass a criminal background check.

Internships at Stevens County Human Services are unpaid and are not benefit eligible.

Minimum Qualifications

Internships are open to students pursuing an undergraduate degree or graduate degree; or in a qualifying field of study which requires internship hours.

Supplemental Information

Work environment: Standard office environment. May involve operations of PCs and other office equipment. May require being in the field with experienced staff.

Internal/External Relationships: Interactions with County staff and with the public to obtain and provide information.
